

Make it a movement, not a moment!

The labor movement is starting to stand up!

- Around the country, the ATU has started supporting its bus drivers refusal to transport those arrested at BLM protests.
- In New York City, the bus drivers refused to even transport the cops to protests.
- In Seattle, the King County Labor Council voted to expel the police “union” from their council.
- In Minneapolis, UFCW members at Seward Co-Op grocery store walked out and stayed out for nine minutes in support of #SolidaritywithGeorgeFloyd.
- And now this – longshore workers are shutting down the ports all along the coast.

The spirit of hundreds of thousands of protesters around the country is entering into the unions. Now, we have to carry it further. Here is our chance! Rank and file members can organize to make our unions do what they were built to do all along:

Stand up for their members on the job and stand up for all workers in the community.

Until now, too many members felt too alienated from their unions to even care. Too demoralized to even try. Now things are changing.

Now is our chance!

Oaklandsocialist would like to talk with and help any rank and file worker organize inside their union. If you aren't a union member, maybe you know one. Or maybe you'd like to join in our campaign. Contact us at oaklandsocialist@gmail.com

Grocery workers at Seward Co-op in Minneapolis, striking for nine minutes in solidarity with George Floyd

www.oaklandsocialist.com